MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Investigations Division
Office of Security

1. This is to advise that I received your memorandum of 14 August 1985 concerning the defacing of your vehicle while you were visiting the Headquarters Building of the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. I have been advised that our Inspector General is taking action in this matter, and he undoubtedly will be in touch with you on the results of the inquiry. This matter will surely be given prompt attention.

3. On a personal note, however, I did wish to express my sincere regret that this incident occurred at an Agency facility. Please be assured that it is not typical of the conduct of our employees.
